Focus – The Cenotaph, London is our UK national War Memorial, designed by Edwin Lutyens and built of Portland Stone between 1919 and 1920 by Holland, Hannen and Cubitts. The unveiling ceremony was on 11 November 1920. In Borough Green, Kent the War Memorial designed and contribute by Ray Chopin, Mike Taylor and Suzanne Young is forever to remember those locals that gave their lives for our children's tomorrow. Built by local master builder, Nick Taylor and unveiled on Sunday 13 November 2016 in readiness of the 100 year great war remembrance in 2018. Romans 5

Dear friends welcome to the November edition of My Community Network for keeping you informed of issues that I am representing you on at TMBC. I am a local family man, born and bred in Borough Green. Business man, ex - school governor, Parish & T&MB councillor. My mission includes building a network of support in my political work for improving our community and to represent our people. This month's edition focuses on War Memorials and the new construction in Borough Green, Kent.

Fact – A War Memorial is a building, monument, statue or other edifice to celebrate a war or victory, or to commemorate those who died or were injured in a war. War memorials are found world – wide and built in all shapes and sizes for one reason only – as a place of remembrance for peace, love, honour and respect of human lives lost in an act of war. Thank you for our War Memorial.
